

Shanadar

Bob Ellison

Collected by Cecil Sharp, Belvedere, 4th September 1914

Cecil Sharp MSS, Folk Tunes CJS2/10/3028

Roud 324

O- Shan- a- dar I love your daugh-ter Hoo- ray you rol- ling ri- ver O Shan- a- dar I- love your daugh- ter Ha ha I'm bound a- way through the wild Mis- sour- i

1. O Shanadar I love your daughter
Hooray you rolling river
O Shanadar I love your daughter
Ha ha I'm bound away through the wild Missouri
2. Seven long years I courted Sally
3. Seven long years I couldn't get her
4. Farewell my dear I'm bound to leave you
5. I'm bound away and will ne'er deceive you.

"I am nice and comfortable here but I'm afraid they will want to bury me in a church yard. I would rather be buried on the high seas on a dirty wild night than in Westminster Abbey!"

2. Seven long years I courted Sally
3. Seven long years I couldn't get her

4. Because I was (or she said I was) a tarry sailor

“Given me by the Hall Porter of Belvedere”