verse 3

And un- der- neath this bla- ck cloud I saw the old man shi- ning, A- way, haul a- way- haul a- way Joe

verse 2

Ear- ly on one sum-mer's morn

The image shows musical notation for two verses of the song 'Haul away Joe'. Verse 3 is written on a single staff in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 6/8 time signature. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes. Verse 2 is also on a single staff in the same key and time signature, with a similar melodic structure. Lyrics are placed below the notes.

1. [??] come haul and haul together
Away, haul away, haul away Joe
2. Early on one summer's morn, I saw a black cloud rising
3. And underneath this black cloud I saw the old man shining
4. Away haul away, you California riggers [?]
5. Away, haul away, and pull [??] together

The recording is on Disc Side 078, starting at 01:48. The recording is missing the first few words of the song.

In some verses there is a pause on the last note before the refrain. The final "Joe" is often cut very short.
