

Seventeen come Sunday

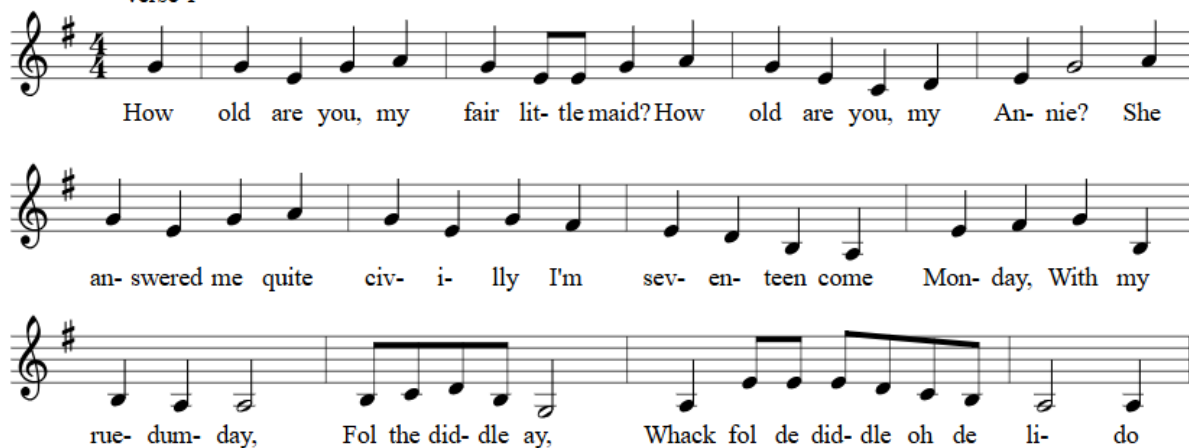

"Sharper's" Joe Jones

Recorded by Mike Yates, St Marys Cray, 1973

Mike Yates collection, British Library Sound Archive C 796/43 (VWML 13 CDA Yates)

Roud 277

Verse 1

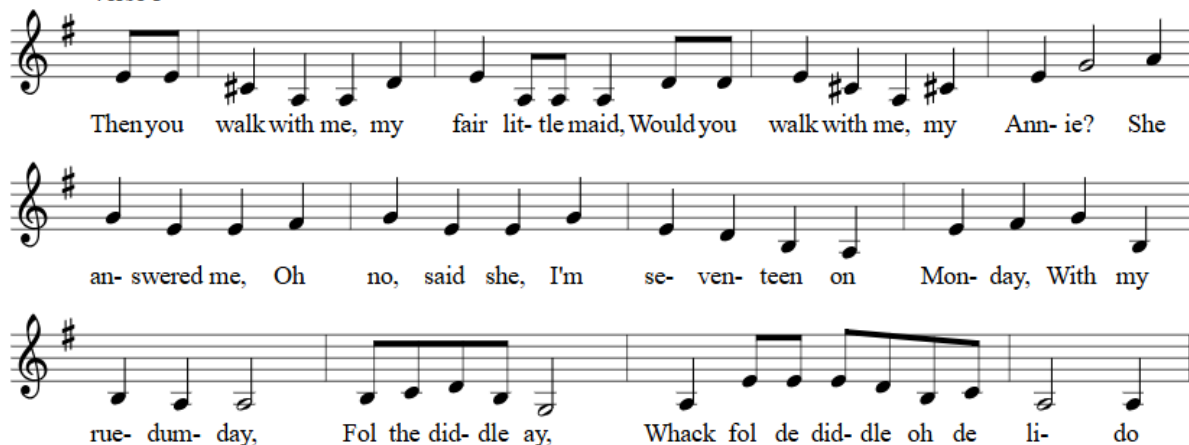

How old are you, my fair lit-tle maid? How old are you, my An-nie? She an- swered me quite civ- i- lly I'm sev- en- teen come Mon- day, With my rue- dum- day, Fol the did- dle ay, Whack fol de did- dle oh de li- do

Verse 2

Would you mar- ry me, my fair lit- tle maid? Would you mar- ry me, my An- nie? She an- swered me quite civ- il- ly I'm on- ly sev- en- teen come Mon- day, With my rue- dum- day, Fol the did- dle ay, Whack fol de did- dle oh de li- do

Verse 3

Then you walk with me, my fair lit- tle maid, Would you walk with me, my Ann- ie? She an- swered me, Oh no, said she, I'm se- ven- teen on Mon- day, With my rue- dum- day, Fol the did- dle ay, Whack fol de did- dle oh de li- do

1. How old are you, my fair little maid?

How old are you, my Annie?

She answered me quite civilly

I'm seventeen come Monday

Chorus

With my rue-dum-day, Fol the diddle ay

Whack fol de diddle oh de li-do

2. Would you marry me, my fair little maid?

Would you marry me, my Annie?

She answered me quite civilly

I'm only seventeen come Monday

3. Then you walk with me, my fair little maid

Would you walk with me, my Annie?

She answered me, Oh no, said she

I'm seventeen on Monday