He comes down our alley (Still I love him)

Betty Redshaw

Recorded by Peter Kennedy, West Wickham, Kent, 1954

The Bald-Headed End of the Broom (Songs of Uneasy Wedlock), Folktracks FTX-019; Peter Kennedy, Folksongs of Britain and Ireland, Cassell, 1975

Roud 854

1. He comes down our alley and whistles me out

   His hands in his pockets, his shirt 'angin' out

   Chorus:

   But yus I luvs 'im

   I can't denies it

   I goes wiv 'im

   Wher'ever 'e goes

2. He bought me an 'ankerchief, red white and blue

   Outside the pawnshop 'e tore it in two

3. O I like an apple and I like a pear

   And I like a feller with nice curly hair

4. 'E took me to the public and ordered me stout
   Before I could drink it, 'e'd ordered me out

5. Before we was married, we 'ad lots of quids
   But now that we's married, we got lots o' kids